

In order to yield the best results for your pregnancy test, please do not drink fluid for four hours before coming in. Concentrated urine will yield a more accurate result and urine will be collected when you arrive for your appointment.