

PRIVACY POLICY

This Privacy Policy describes Path of Life's policies and procedures on the collection, use and disclosure of your information when you use our services and tells you about your privacy rights and how the law protects you. We use your personal data to provide and improve our service to you. By using the services offered at Path of Life, you agree to the collection and use of information in accordance with this Privacy Policy.

Path of Life is committed to safeguarding the privacy of our staff, clients and donors. We want to assure you that we do not share your personal information with third parties. This privacy policy outlines how we collect, use and protect the information you provide to us.

INFORMATION COLLECTION:

We collect only the information necessary to provide and improve our services. This may include your name, email address and phone number. We do not sell, rent or share this information with any unauthorized third party.

HOW WE USE YOUR INFORMATION:

The information collected is used solely for communicating with you as the intended party. We do not share or sell your personal information with external parties for marketing or any other purposes. Additionally, no mobile or messaging consent information will be shared with third parties/affiliates for marketing/promotional purposes. All the above categories exclude text messaging originator opt-in data and consent; this information will not be shared with any third parties.

We may use personal data for the following purposes:

- To provide and maintain our service, including to monitor the usage of our service.
- To manage your registration as a user of Path of Life's services. The personal data you provide can give you access to different functionalities of services that are available to you as a registered user.
- To contact you: To contact you by email, telephone calls, SMS or other equivalent forms of electronic communication, such as a mobile application's push notifications regarding updates or informative communications related to the functionalities, and/or services, including the security updates, when necessary or reasonable for their implementation.
- To provide you with information about upcoming events you may have indicated an interest in attending.
- To attend and manage your requests to us.

All messages you send through the service, whether to us or other users are stored on our servers. Path of Life employs servers and services owned by third parties to securely retain these messages.

SMS Disclosure

By reaching us by SMS, you agree to receive recurring messages from Path of Life. Message and data rates may apply. Message frequency depends on your interactions and preferences. You can reply STOP to opt-out of future messages or HELP for more information. No mobile or messaging consent information will be shared with third parties/affiliates for marketing/promotional purposes. All the above categories exclude text messaging originator opt-in data and consent; this information will not be shared with any third parties.

DISCLOSURE OF YOUR INFORMATION

Path of Life does not share any client data with third parties for marketing, promotional purposes, or any other purposes. Your personal information is kept confidential and is not disclosed to any outside organizations, except as required by law or with your explicit consent. We may disclose your personal information under the following limited circumstances?

- We have obtained your consent.
- We need to enforce our Terms of Service.

- We share information with partners or affiliates that have signed non-disclosure agreements with us only to provide you with a specific service.
- We may provide such information to a company controlled by or under common control with Path of Life for any purpose allowed by this Policy.
- We respond to subpoenas, court orders, or legal processes, or to establish or exercise our legal rights, or the legal rights of others, or defend against legal claims.
- When we believe it is necessary to disclose Personal Information to investigate, prevent, or take action regarding illegal activities, suspected fraud, potential threats to anyone's physical safety, violations of Path of Life's Terms of Service, or as otherwise required by law.
- We transfer personal information about you if Path of Life or its assets are acquired by or merged with another company.

We may share aggregated, non-identifiable information with others without further notice to you, such as the total number of people who used our services in a specific month or the total number of messages sent during a particular period.

INTERNATIONAL DATA TRANSFERS

Your personal information may be transferred to and processed in locations outside of your state, province, country, or other governmental jurisdiction where the data protection laws may differ from those in your jurisdiction. We take steps to ensure that your data is handled securely and in line with this policy, regardless of where it is processed.

DATA RETENTION

We retain your personal information only as long as necessary to fulfill the purposes outlined in this policy unless a longer retention period is required or permitted by law. We will also retain and use your personal information as necessary to comply with legal obligations, resolve disputes, and enforce our agreements.

COOKIES AND TRACKING TECHNOLOGIES

Our service may use cookies and similar tracking technologies to enhance your experience. Cookies are small text files placed on your device to collect information about your activity on the service. You can control the use of cookies through your browser settings, but disabling cookies may limit your ability to use certain features of the page or service.

YOUR CHOICES

You have the right to access, correct, or delete your information. If you have any concerns or questions about your data, please contact us at 509-444-9035 or info@PathOfLifeSpokane.org or 103 E. Indiana, Suite B, Spokane, WA 99207

POLICY CHANGES

We may update our privacy policy from time to time. Any changes will be communicated to you, and your continued use of our services implies your acceptance of the updated policy. By using our services, you agree to the terms outlined in this privacy policy.
