

Instructions: One hour prior to the appointment, empty your bladder completely. Begin drinking water or any non-carbonated beverage until you have finished the equivalent of three, 8-ounce glasses (24 ounces of liquid) and do not empty your bladder until the ultrasound is complete and you are instructed to do so. If you are unable to keep your appointment, please let us know as soon as possible.